Links AI Entrepreneurship Ltd

This Privacy Notice explains, in brief, how Links AI handles personal information when you visit our website.

For full details, please review our Privacy Policy.

Links AI may collect limited personal information such as your name, email address, company details, and basic technical data when you browse our website or contact us. We use this information to respond to inquiries, provide information about our AI technologies and services, operate and improve our website, and maintain secure and lawful business operations.

We do not sell personal data.

Personal information collected through this website is not used to train, fine-tune, or develop AI models, unless explicitly disclosed and permitted by applicable law.

We may share personal information with trusted service providers who support our website and business operations, subject to strict confidentiality and data protection obligations.

We apply appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect personal information.

You may exercise your data protection rights as described in our Privacy Policy or by contacting us at: info@links-workplace.com
